FOREWORD

The Annual Staff has in these few pages tried to capture some parts of the work, the play, the seriousness and the gaiety which have made our high school days a magic time. We hope that as you turn through the pages of the MAPLE LEAVES in years to come, it will bring the joy of reminiscence to all who remember the class of 1956.

To our beloved teachers we say, "Thanks for your patience with the staff and for your gracious attitude toward making our MAPLE LEAVES a success."

THESE ALSO SERVE

In every organization there are people behind the scenes without whom the organization could not exist. Dublin High School is no exception. Among those people are the cafeteria staff who work long, hard hours to see that we are provided with nourishing, hot lunches; the bus drivers who through all kinds of weather deliver us safely to and from school; Mr. Nuckols who keeps us warm, keeps us clean, and acts as "jack of all trades." There is Grace, the maid, who very silently goes about her duties; and last but not least, there is Don Repass who acts as watchdog over the school store.

To these people we offer our gratitude for helping to make our high school days happier and healthier.

CLASS HISTORY

To the freshman class entering Dublin High in September of 1952 the prospect of ever becoming seniors seemed ages away; however, here we are looking back over four years of happy time.

Do you remember how excited we were on "Rat Day" when the seniors initiated us and we officially became high school students. All those hilarious costumes!!

There were no class officers that year and Freddie Riddle was president of the student body. Our band was just being formed and didn't give too many performances, but we were in there trying. The Chorus was doing well, and in general we were adjusting well to the task of becoming old high schoolers.

We started our Sophomore year with many hopes and expectations. Dublin and Draper High Schools consolidated and moved into our new building with Mr. Reynolds as principal.

This was our first year for interscholastic basketball. We all took more interest in the social affairs of school. The Science and F.H.A. Clubs sponsored a Christmas formal which was a big success. The Halloween carnival was held in the gym with a "sock hop." The band and chorus had new robes and uniforms and we were proud of our music department under the direction of Mr. Weihrer. We were even more proud when we had the opportunity to show off our school when the music festivals were held here. Our school insignia, designed by Mr. Endicott, was the top hat, cane and gloves. Joey Whitaker was chosen Fair Queen.

Our junior year arrived, and we could at last see the beginning of the end. We chose able officers to lead us in that year's activities. They were: Teddy Cox, president; Charles Roope, vice-president; Cleton Simpkins, secretary; Joey Whitaker, treasurer; and Shelby Simpkins, reporter.

We had a good time playing host to the seniors at the Junior-Senior banquet. The theme was "Profile of the Future" with a color scheme of purple and white. This same year, the Toastmaster's Club was organized and six of its members made a trip to Roanoke for the Forensic contests. Our class play, "Elmer," was a delightful comedy and a huge success. During the year our band and chorus gave a concert together.

The Latin Club Talent Show was loads of fun. David Wilson won first prize with his impersonation of Deacon Andy Griffin's "What was, was Football."

We were pleased when Joey Whitaker was chosen the homecoming queen's attendant by the football team.

Now the time has come, and we are filled with gladness and sadness at the thought of ending our stay at Dublin High.

Our senior year started out with thirteen new faces on our faculty and hundreds of new faces in our student body. Mr. Corder and Miss Fanning took over our music department and our band and chorus gave several successful concerts.

We enjoyed a number of dances following our football games and time just seemed to dance away for us.

Mr. Bradner became our principal after the tragic death of Mr. Reynolds.

Our Christmas formal was a huge success and it became evident that it had become a tradition. Time marched on and mid-semester exams arrived. We held our breath until the results were known and heaved a great big sigh when we found that we had passed. One more lap to go and we would be walking down our auditorium aisle for the last time as students.

The last semester was one continuous whirl of activity. Invitations, cards, cap and gowns were ordered. The prom, the picnic, and all the other activities especially for seniors came in a rush. Finally the big day arrived and we felt as proud as peacocks, to realize that we had really done what had seemed so far away when we were freshmen.

And now, it's all over and we depart from Dublin High with a feeling of happy regret. Now it's ust a memory, but a memory that will never dim nor die.

To our teachers, we leave peace of mind. After four years of us they need it.

To our parents, we leave the knowledge that after years of hard work they have seen us reach an important goal in our lives. Without their loving care, patience, and understanding we could never have made it.

And finally, WE LEAVE.

One night while strolling casually along a path on Draper's Mountain, suddenly before us appeared the witch of the future. She seemed in somewhat of a hurry, and suddenly thrust into our hands the key to the future with a careful warning never to try to use it. The penalty for its use seemed to be a turning of the user to dust. As suddenly as she had appeared, she again vanished into the black of night, leaving us only with the small key and much woman's curiosity.

The temptation just seemed to be too much for us and gently rubbing the key, we unlocked to the eyes of all who could observe the future of the class of 1956.

A heavy mist suddenly covered the entire mountain, making it impossible to see anything. It immediately left and with its leaving left us coughing and our eyes burning. As soon as we could see again, a sudden noise called our attention to a space ship slowly fighting its way to the moon, piloted by DON VIRES who was transmitting vital information back to his ground crew, FLOYD COX and RONALD McCAMBRIDGE.

As we glanced toward Fairlawn, we saw that TEDDY FERGUSON had won first place in the Diaper Changing Contest. She had stiff competition from ROSE ANN TICKLE, LORETTA PIFER, PATSY FARISS and JOANN STUMP. ANN HYLTON would have been a close competitor, but she was visiting her husband, Dr. BILL HYLTON, and his nurse, LUCY HALE, at St. Albans.

Next we could see the bus between Dublin and Radford and found that our old friend, RONNIE THORNTON, was president of the bus line. His private secretary, JEAN KEISTER, was waiting at the end of the line to have him sign some very important letters.

Our next glance was at Dublin High where we saw the familiar halls and heard familiar sounds coming from the gym. As we looked again we saw the coaches, BILL LUCKADO and PHYLLIS RATCLIFFE, talking to their star players, JAMES TOLBERT and MARGARET EADS, who had returned for post-grad work. Looking into the office, we saw DON REPASS seated behind his desk dictating to one of his secretaries, JUANITA JENNINGS. ADDIE ROSEBERRY, the other secretary, was talking with DREAMA FARISS, who is instructor of the majorettes. Outside the office a faculty meeting was beginning, and we spied other familiar faces. Among them were JOE JOHN THOMPSON, Agriculture teacher. MAXINE SHELBURNE had taken Mrs. Meadow's place, and MARGARET MABE, talking as usual, has taken on the job as Spanish and Chorus teacher.

Venturing a glance at the Sundry, we found that MARY ANN MORRIS is owner. Some of her best customers are the famous engineer, JAMES MASSEY; and that celebrated actress, JANE WITHERS. Music issuing forth from the electronic juke box was that of the real-hep "String Along With Us" quartet composed of JOEY WHITAKER, KAY FORD, LESLIE HAYES and BILL TIFFANY. Their business manager is none other than that persuasive fellow, HOWARD WILLIAMS. He also has under his management the female Gene Crupa of the drummer's, GINA POPLIN.

At the post office, we saw JEAN ROBERTSON, KAYE QUESENBERRY, and JANET GILBERT who were mailing letters to their husbands abroad. While chatting with them, we saw the Governor of Parrott, LEON OVERSTREET with ALICE SHEFFEY in his new Cadillac. He was on his way to visit the Governor of Draper, DONALD WALL. We were invited to visit their conference in the basement of the Like-It-Or-Lump-It-Grill operated by MILDRED EDMONDS.

TEDDY COX was the proud owner of a ten-thousand acre farm with the assistance of FRANKLIN MILLS and GEORGE BANE. After seeing his herd of Purple Angus cattle, we saw the new Snowville school where JANET MEREDITH, CLEO TRAIL and THELMA HALL were pulling their hair to think of ways to keep their students out of trouble.

A taxi took us to Radford and when we were ready to pay the bill, we discovered that our driver was CARL THORNTON, who owns several dozens of the things. In Radford we took a train after buying our tickets from JEAN MANNING, and headed for Washington. The conductor came around for the tickets and we again saw KELLY CHILDRESS, who always said he'd be a railroad man. In Washington, we saw JOE HALE, our new Ambassador to France. He was waiting at the White House for a conference with the president, ROBERT BRUCE. He told us that BERMAN LINKOUS had been appointed Far Eastern Director of Secretaries and is about to leave for an around-the-world flight to raise working standards for Siamese secretaries. Out at Bolling Air Force Base we saw Lt. BOB MOORE, who was talking to a star profession football player, ALVIN WAYNE.

PROPHECY

We then went to New York by boat. Upon arrival we felt ill and decided to go to a hospital. As we entered, we heard the world's only dancing surgeon, BOBBY STALEY, being paged on the P A. system. Nurses were all over the place and among them were MARGARET MEREDITH, JANET JAMESON, and WANDA HARRELL. Before leaving New York, we heard the announcement that HASSELL SUMNER had just won first place in the men's skating contest in the Olympics. SHELBY SIMPKINS was a close competitor in the women's contest until she fell for a Turkish nobleman.

Traveling toward the west, we stopped off in Chicago where EDDIE GOFORTH was making a speech in behalf of JANICE MONTGOMERY who was running for president of the Inland Sea Commission.

Out in Wyoming we saw the nation's star farmer, CLETON SIMPKINS. DAVID WILSON, county agent, wss presenting an award to him. ORBIN COLLIER has his own dairy farm near by. In a small town near Orbin's farm we watched a rodeo where DONALD McCAMBRIDGE was competing with RUDY SLATE and LARRY WILLIAMS for the Cow-poke Order of the Broken Arm awarded each year to the best rodeo star.

We then took off for Hollywood with GARNET EDMONDS as our pilot. We got off in the middle of a movie location and much to our surprise discovered MARY LOU TICKLE and CHARLES ROOPE co-starring in the second version of the movie, "A Many Splendored Thing is Love," directed by HARRIETTE SCHAUB. Mary Lou's hair stylist was NANCY ROOPE. The famous comedian, Martha Raye, has been replaced by SHIRLEY TOLBERT. BETTY LOU DODSON has made her debut as a replacement for Marilyn Monroe. BETTY AGEE was recording for Decker records. DAWN QUESENBERRY was playing the lead in the movie "Old Susana." With her were RICHARD WEBB, the continental Casanova, and PATSY KELBY.

In Los Angeles we saw many tired secretaries, including BETTY COX and DORIS TOLBERT, who are employed by a large chemical firm whose president is MANUEL JONES. We found that just around the corner was GORDON GALLIMORE'S pastry shop. Not far away we saw the office of a famous private investigator, EDDIE STEPHENS. He had on his staff JAMES LAMBERT, DAWN McCRAW and JUDY ROUDEBUSH. MARY WILLIAMS was his chief advisor. We heard from Eddie that NANCY ROSEBERRY, SHIRLEY SCOTT, and DOLLY SMART were starring in an opera at the Palace Theatre. Also featured were the dancing team of CHARLES RASNICK and MARY SUE DALTON.

We visited in JEAN WEST'S home in Los Angeles. Her husband, a deep sea diver, was away and she invited us to watch TV. The first face to appear on the screen was LOIS CRIGGER who had her own program. Her cast included PATTY BLACKWELL and JO ANN BISHOP. JOYCE ROSE was advertising Vivalon lipstick that would not eat off, kiss off or wash off. We later saw DAVID HENLEY as master of ceremonies on "Princess for a Week." The first contestant on the show was GLENNA FLINCHUM followed by BECKY GUNN.

While shopping, we saw SUSIE SHEAFFER acting as floorwalker in a large department store. JANIE LINKOUS was her boss. In the same store CAROL MORGAN was trying to sell ANN McCORMICK, recording star for Capitola Records a new dress. Her press agent, BETTY NEAL, was along to give her advice.

DARLENE BAYS sold us a ticket on a jet liner and after going aboard, the hostesses, ELIZABETH DULANEY and EVELYN HAGA pointed out all points of interest as we took off. DON BURNETTE was owner fo the airline and did everything possible to make us comfortable. We were settled back in our seats thoroughly enjoying the trip when we suddenly flew into a cloud bank of such density that it seemed to seep right through the windows of the place. Then we actually saw that it was coming through the windows surrounding us, choking us, and burning our eyes. As though it was being fanned away by a giant fan, the fog disappeared and we realized that our feet were on the ground.

We were back on Draper's Mountain. We looked at one another and wondered if we'd been dreaming. No, we couldn't have been for in our hands we still held the key. Then we remembered the witch's warning that we'd be turned to dust if we looked into the future.

Well, we did look, and we're not sorry. But, please if you should see a little pile of dust leave it alone because you never know, it could be us.

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it," was the underlying principle for the year's choral activities. This year the chorus was one of the largest musical organizations in our district.

Performances were given at several schools in this area, including Radford College. Special programs were given at churches in the county, and at St. Albans Hospital. The band and chorus together were featured in a musical production which required hours of practice. Six members participated in All-State Chorus-West, held at Radford in February. The Dublin Chorus performed at District VI Musical Festival, and in a Pulaski County Choral Workshop. Much has been done in this group to develop a greater appreciation for good music.

"May some melody remain,
Singing in our hearts again,
Bringing joy, easing pain
When singers and their songs have departed."

The Beta Club of 1955-56 is composed of twenty-one members. The club operated the concession stands during the basketball games. A portion of the money made in this way was invested in books for the school library.

At Christmas, the club filled baskets for the Fairview Home. In January an assembly program was given in which each member of the club took part. In March a group of members attended the National Beta Convention in Richmond. The members had a wonderful time sharing our ideas of work and recreation with Beta members from all over the United States.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Teddy Ferguson	Kay Ford	Mary Lou Tickle

The cheerleaders of Dublin High School add much to the school spirit and the morale of our athletes. This school spirit can always be felt at the various games when we hear the never ceasing yelling, cheering, and singing urging our players on to victory. No matter what the final score may be or who the opponent may be, the cheerleaders always strive to keep the student's interest alive in all sports and to show them the meaning of real sportsmanship.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The varsity football team started out the season in slow motion for the first few games, but picked up steam as the season progressed. The big event, our homecoming, was with Narrows leaving a tied score of 7-7. As the season drew close to an end Dublin journeyed to Hillsville to the "Mud Bowl," only to end cold, muddy, and wet and with a score of 7-6 in favor of Hillsville. The season ended when the Dukes handed Pembroke a 14-0 defeat. We didn't win them all, but our boys never failed to show the good stuff of which they are made. We're proud of our football toting Dukes!!

Our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are smaller copies of our varsity cheerleaders. They work hard to supply our eighth grade teams and our junior varsity teams with the same kind of morale boosters that our varsity girls give to our varsity teams. Through them our underclassmen can see and learn the spirit of which our school is made, and the sportsmanship of which we are so proud.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls of the basketball team can be complimented for their good sportsmanship and school spirit. In the face of a season of defeats these girls fought hard in each game to grasp the ever elusive victory.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Dukes got off to a good season by defeating Bedford 51 to 45. As the season progressed the boys fought hard and proved to the spectators that they knew how to accept defeat as well as victory. The highlight of the season was, as usual, the game in Pulaski. The scrappy Dukes tangled with Pulaski's Orioles every moment of the game, only to have Pulaski sink a last minute goal to make the final score Dublin 32-Pulaski 34. The season as a whole was very successful with the Dukes winning ten and losing the same number. For their third year of interscholastic basketball the Dukes did a job of which we are all proud.

BASEBALL 1955

The 1955 baseball season was a successful one for the Dukes. They succeeded in coming out on top in eight games, dropping only five. The thriller of the season came in Pulaski when the Dukes tied with the Orioles, 2 to 2, after thirteen spine tingling innings left all the spectators breathless with excitement.

TRACK

The track team of Dublin High School was newly formed in 1954. This new team participated in three meets. Even though they failed to win a meet, the results were good considering the meager facilities with which they had to work. For a first year team, our boys again proved that they have the spirit of true sportsmanship in the face of defeat.

symbol of progress...

As graduation nears, let's take a serious look at the past. We see that education has been largely responsible for the progress of our nation.

Why? Education is PROGRESS.

Today — more than ever before — industry, business and labor, all, know the true values of a good educational system. EDUCATION continues to stand as a true symbol of PROGRESS.
